DISCOVERING THE AIGUEBLANCHE VALLEYS

LA LÉCHÈRE-LES-BAINS VALMOREL • THE WELLNESS SIDE

Nestled in its green setting at an altitude of 440 m, the spa resort of La Léchère les bains is ideally located in the Tarentaise valley in Savoie at the foot of the famous ski resort of Valmorel and 20 minutes from it. La Léchère les bains also offers privileged access to mountain activities such as cycling, board sports, hiking in all their forms. This illustrates the old local proverb «you arrive in La Léchère by cart and you leave in front of the horse»!

VALMOREL THE RESORT SIDE

For mountain lovers, Valmorel is the first resort of the Tarentaise region, located at an altitude of 1400 m. Its architecture blends harmoniously with the landscape and embodies the spirit and art of mountain living. With its pedestrian main street, it is a very lively resort that offers a multitude of activities and entertainment.

DOUCY VALMOREL • THE NATURE SIDE

The village resort of Doucy was once called Doucy-Combelouvière because of the strong presence of wolves, which were said to come to warm up in the sun on the plateau. Linked to Valmorel by a chairlift, it enjoys an exceptional sunshine and a breathtaking view on the surrounding glaciers. Official Gulli resort, it is an ideal vacation spot for the little ones.

NÂVES VALMOREL • THE NORDIC SIDE

Backed by the Beaufortain, the resort of Naves is located on the sunny side of the valley in a preserved environment. In the middle of the mountain pastures, far from the crowd and noise, it is an ideal setting for outdoor activities such as hiking, climbing, mountain biking. The Nant du beurre refuge offers a well-deserved rest and some local flavors to those who wish to spend the night in the middle of nature.

CELLIERS VALMOREL • THE SECRET SIDE

Celliers is a traditional village clinging to the mountain on the Lauzière massif. It is the starting point of many hikes and a cable car connects the village to the resorts of Valmorel and Doucy in a few minutes. Celliers is located on the road to the Col de la Madeleine at an altitude of 2000 m, a major stage of the Tour de France. This mountainous area will delight lovers of peaceful nature, fauna and flora, in the heart of the Massif de la Lauzière integrated into the Nature 2000 program.
