A TERRITORY FOR ALL TYPES OF BIKES

■ DISCOVER THE MYTHICAL PASSES!

Alone or in a group, road cycling is a popular sport. Whether you want to discover new landscapes or are looking for performance, road cycling will give you a feeling of freedom and challenge!

The ascent of the Col de la Madeleine is certainly the most mythical in the area!

The Col de la Madeleine has been climbed no less than 26 times in the history of the Tour de France
Its ascent is often decisive for the future winner...

■ PUMP TRACK !

- Pumptrack is defined as a closed off-road track, characterised by bumps and turns on a surface often made of earth and sometimes concrete, wood or tar. It is used for mountain biking (downhill or cross-country) but also for BMX, skateboarding, rollerblading or scootering.
- This discipline, in view of the terrain, does not require pedalling but bending with arms and legs over bumps and curves to gain speed.
- The Morel pumptrack offers 3 tracks of different levels (green, blue and red). It is located in Bellecombe, next to the swimming pool. Access is free, helmets must be worn.

■ MOUNTAIN BIKE SHUTTLES !

Shuttles are available from Valmorel to reach the pumptrack.

➤ L'oratoire St Roch

Open all year round

- Saint Roch once again watches over the mountain pastures...

This is a story that began in the years 1865/70. Jean Montmayeur and his wife Sophie were the owners of the mountain pasture «Le prariond». It was at this time that all the animals (cows, mules, pigs) were decimated by anthrax.

So, to protect the lives of humans, they built a modest stone oratory up there, with a rounded vault housing a picture of Saint Roch, a saint who was the protector of the great epidemics, a pilgrim of the Gods and a helper of the sick. In the past, the priest also blessed the oratory during the blessing of the flocks.

From April to October

- Dive into the great adventure of the waters of La Léchère. A discovery area dedicated to thermal waters, geothermal energy and renewable energies. An exhibition to share with the family, to visit in groups or with friends.

Since 1859, the hyperthermal waters of La Léchère-les-Bains have brought life to the area: development of thermalism, tourism and recently of geothermal energy. It is in this context that the museum space of the waters of La Léchère, Aquacalida, opened its doors in 2014.

The tour gradually takes the visitor through the history of La Léchère, the development and benefits of thermalism, the advent of geothermal energy and the major local and global energy issues. Interactive and fun, the Aquacalida space is a place of cultural and scientific mediation accessible to all, children and adults alike, novices and initiates.

- Church of St Martin

The baroque church of Villargerel is dedicated to St Martin. The present building, rebuilt around 1682-1685, is remarkable for its wall paintings and altarpieces.

The dome on pendentives is divided into eight vaults decorated with medallions which were to represent the apostles: the decoration of its base combines stucco and trompe l'oeil paintings.

Jacques Clérant created the main altarpiece in 1707: six twisted columns separate three parts, with a painting of the Crucifixion in the central part.

A WARM WELCOME AND QUALITY SERVICES GUARANTEED

In order to better welcome you, the Tourist Office of Valmorel and the Valleys of Aigueblanche is committed to

■ Providing you with comfortable, warm and accessible reception areas.

■ Offering you personalised advice on the Valmorel destination with clear and precise information.

■ Responding to your requests with attentive and available staff who speak several foreign languages.

■ To listen to you in order to constantly seek improvement and take into account your comments and suggestions.

■ To commit to a quality approach by renewing its Quality Tourism Mark in April 2021.

The Quality Tourism mark, created by the State, selects and federates under a single symbol the Quality initiatives undertaken by tourism professionals, including the Tourist Offices, with a view to continually improving their activity and the satisfaction of their customers.
